2. No pets or other animals of any description are permitted on the island
3. No fireworks, Chinese lanterns, kites, or trolley carts shall be taken on to the island.
4. Camping is not permitted on Skokholm.
5. We reserve the right to refuse landing for baggage that does not comply with our quarantine procedures (details enclosed with booking information)
6. Whilst the information in our Booking Information leaflet is correct at the time of going to print, we reserve the right to change any of the prices, services, or other particulars contained in published information at any time before we enter into a contract with you. If there is any change, we will notify you before we enter into any contract.

CONTRACT AND WARRANTIES

7. Once we have accepted your booking and payment then a contract has been entered into which includes these conditions, and those set out in the booking form, and such contract is governed by English Law. Payment of all required amounts when they are due is of the essence of the contract.
8. When you sign and return your booking form you warrant that you are over 18 years old and have read the Booking Conditions and other information contained in the e-leaflets, and that all members of your party are aware of the same.

BOOKINGS

9. Provisional bookings made by telephone will remain firm provided we receive the amount due within 21 days of the date of booking. Any bookings made by email will remain firm provided we have the accommodation available and will then need to be confirmed by sending the booking form, along with payment within 21 days of the date of your email.
10. Domestic group bookings – the group leader is responsible for complying with the booking conditions.

14. If you pay a booking fee the balance must be received at least eight weeks before the beginning of the period booked. We will send an invoice 12 weeks in advance to remind you. If we do not receive the balance when due, we shall, with regret, cancel your booking and make it available to others.
15. We can in some cases transfer bookings to a new date in the same year for a charge of £5 per booking. If there is a surplus we will hold that against a future booking, and will not refund it.

24. The Trust is unable to accept responsibility for any extra costs that may be incurred if a sailing is cancelled or you become stormbound on the island.
25. Please Note: We do not operate a cancellation insurance scheme and strongly recommend that you ensure that you have your own appropriate cover.
26. We may cancel a booking at any time before that date on which it begins. We would expect to do this only for essential building work or for some other reason unforeseen by us at the time your booking was accepted. In this unlikely event we shall refund in full all money received by us for the booking, but will not have any liability beyond this, and, without limitation of the foregoing, we will not have any liability for travel costs incurred by you in relation to the booking.
27. If we cannot transport you to Skokholm by boat at the beginning of your stay we will refund the cost of each night until you reach Skokholm, less the booking fee.

We reserve the right to cancel the trip completely if there are adverse weather conditions and the boat is unable to land on Skokholm or the weather conditions for subsequent days would impair the safe departure of guests from the island. We shall refund all the cost of the holiday less the booking fee. Please note that in bad weather conditions the boat may only make the one morning run to the island at 10am or possibly earlier. Please also note that the boatman has the final say on whether conditions are safe for the boat to travel to and from Skokholm Island.
